

Company Information

SecureCom is an engineered systems distributor, specializing in the installation and service of integrated low voltage systems, serving the region from offices in Springfield Oregon, Bend Oregon and Redding California. We excel in design-build projects, meeting the customer's needs and concerns through applications engineering. SecureCom was started in 1989 as a full-line dealer of integrated low voltage systems. Our line of systems includes: Fire and security alarms, CCTV and access control systems, nurse call and intercom systems, voice and data networks; building control and energy management, industrial process control, security gates and control, residential security and home automation.

The company's integrated systems can be found in, hospitals, assisted living centers, shopping malls, retail outlets, educational facilities, commercial buildings, industrial sites and residences throughout Oregon, Northern California, and Southwest Washington.

SecureCom, Inc.

1940 Don Street

Suite 100

Springfield, Oregon 97477-5911

Toll-free: 1-888-343-5565

Office: (541) 343-5565

Fax: (541) 343-0085